Complaint against Liberatore for Congress Committee 2010

Complainant: Michael Cargile

Phillips Ranch, CA 91766

Respondent: Philip Liberatore
16800 Valley View Ave.
La Mirada, CA 90638

MUR # 6288

Summary of Complaint: Mr. Liberatore is using his campaign and campaign contributions for the purpose of promoting his business IRS Problem Solvers, Inc.

The complainant, Michael Cargile, received a letter on April 12, 2010 from the respondent, Philip Liberatore, President of IRS Problem Solvers, Inc. The letter, mailed out to more than 700 chamber members, details Mr. Liberatore's campaign for Congress in the 42nd District. The letter, dated February 24, 2010, was written on IRS Problem Solvers, Inc. letterhead. Mr. Liberatore is the owner of IRS Problem Solvers, Inc. The letter specifically references "Paid for by the Liberatore for Congress Committee 2010."

In addition, Mr. Liberatore filed suit against the Secretary of State of California for its rejection of Mr. Liberatore's ballot designation. Mr. Liberatore listed "IRS Problem Solver" as his official ballot designation. The Secretary of State of California rejected this designation. Mr. Liberatore filed suit with the assertion that he is known in the community as the IRS Problem Solver and he has spent years building the name of his company, IRS Problem Solvers, Inc. The court rejected Mr. Liberatore's claims. Mr. Liberatore's press release is attached for your review.

Mr. Liberatore is attempting to circumvent the decision of the Secretary of State and the courts of California to prevent his company through campaign advertising. This is a blatant disregard of both state of California election laws as well as Federal Election Commission regulations.

Sincerely,

Michael Cargile

Dear

I wanted to write to introduce myself. My name is Phil Liberatore and I am President of IRS Problem Solvers, Inc. We have just recently joined the Chamber and look forward to developing a supportive business relationship. .

I am running for U.S. Congress in the 42nd District as a conservative Republican. The more I talk with people it is clear that they are ready for new leadership. People are tired of the tax and spend mentality in Washington that is crippling our country.

Unemployment is at an all time high, thousands of people are losing their homes, people are paying too much in taxes, and they do not know what to do or who to turn to for help.

I am a business person just like you and have built two successful firms: Liberatore CPA, A Professional Corporation and IRS Problem Solvers, Inc. It appears that the government in California and Washington are doing their best to put us out of business. We must act now to turn this around.

As your Congressman, I will work for you to:

- Cut taxes.
- Create new jobs.
- Continue to increase our national security.
- Eliminate waste in Washington.

I hope I can count on you for your vote June 8th. For more information, you can go to www.liberatoreforcongress.com. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at (714) 310-3062 or email at phil@liberatoreforcongress.com

Sincerely,

Phil Liberatore
